The County Ticket, &c.

We hoist this week alongside the state ticket, the nominees for the respective

County offices. This ticket is eminently sound. Enough of the old officers have been retained to keep the wheels of county government smoothly revolving.

The new officials for so they may safely

be considered already—are reliable men, well versed in county affairs.

As to their election, the regular form prescribed by law will have to be followed about the first of November.—

This however so far as the result is concerned is altogether unnecessary. The straight Republican ticket is always were to be elected in this county. There is no opposition from the Democrats,

they having scarcely votes enough for a

"first nine" and we are not aware of any "bolt" in the Republican ranks.

Chicago must be the banner Republican County of the State of Minnesota. That is probably the reason no speakers have been assigned here during the campaign.

We don't need any Republican speakers and it is worse than useless to send Democrats.

The only "spice" for election will be

the County Seat Question. On the Bond

Question and amendments to the Constitution the people are already agreed.

Efforts will be made to "spice" the occasion well, with this only issue that can be made. Both parties, for and against the removal are awake and the subject will be thoroughly aired.

We give some correspondence on the question this week and also the bill for the removal, subject to the approval of the people of this county.

and its adoption by a majority of the case the same is adopted, all officers who are required to hold their offices at the county seat shall, within ninety days after the proclamation of the governor as provided in section five of this act, move and hold their offices at said adopted county seat.

THE ANNUAL PAYMENTS TO THE MINNESOTA

CHIPPENAW are made this year much earlier than usual, and at four places, namely:

At the mouth of Clearwater river, at

Red Lake, at Leech Lake and at the Agency, five miles from Crow Wing.—

The whole number of Chippewas is about six thousand, and the disbursement is $50,000 in money, with an equal amount of goods.

AN OLD BIBLE.—A Bible was sent to this office to be re-bound yesterday, that we venture to say is older than any other

Bible in Minnesota. It was printed in 1572, nearly three centuries ago. It is in the old black letter type, and its binding and style is certainly very venerable.

It is the property of the Seabury Mission at Faribault.—St. Paul Pioneer.

A son of Mr. Fred. Curtis, residing about three miles from Stillwater, on the Marine road, was killed on Saturday last

by the kick of a horse.

The Universals of St. Paul are erecting a $20,000 church.

ROCHESTER CONVENTION.—No Third

Meeting.

The Convention was called to order at half-past two o'clock, and Mr. Edger-

son, of St. Paul, called to the chair.

The mass meeting was not large.—

Thirty-five persons constituting the assembly when called to order. After the appointment of a committee on resolutions, the Convention proceeded to the main business before it.

After a protracted discussion upon a majority and minority report presented by the committee on resolutions, the following was presented by the Rev. Mr.

Nelson, of Rochester, and adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That as friends of temperance, morality and religion, we protest against the action of the two great political parties, opposing any legislation on the great American questions of Temper-

NOTICE is hereby given that the fol-

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK

Foreign Intelligence

It is reported that Sunday, the 23d inst., was the day fixed upon by Garibaldi to make his attack on Rome. Preparations are reported to have been completed. The difficulties in reference to the surrender of the remains of Maximilian seem to be in a fair way of settlement. President Juarez, it is reported, has consented to deliver the body to Admiral Togo, on the presentation of proper official documents from the relatives of the deceased in Austria.

Rio Janeiro advices to Aug. 21 give a report that San Soula has been destroyed and abandoned by the Paraguayans. The allies were in the rear of Humaita. Gen. Mitre had taken supreme command, superseding Marquis Goxias, and a disagreement is reported between them. The fort at Corumbia has been taken by the allies.

A crete letter to the New York Tribune says the mortality in the Turkish army continues, and is almost unexampled. Of the 20,000 Egyptians who went to Crete a year ago there remain from three to six thousand. The same state of affairs exists, more or less, among the Turkish troops. They show signs of exhaustion and demoralization which can hardly be mistaken.

A special from San Francisco says the French and English fleets, which have been islands civil at the treaty of the United States, and feel chagrined at the advantages sure to accrue to this government. Leprosy is making a fearful havoc among the natives. The victims are numbered by hundreds. A separate tract of land is devoted to the use of the community of lepers. Only one foreigner, a German, had been attacked.

The Court Journal has discovered that women may vote under the Reform Bill which has lately become the law of England. Its mode of reasoning is this: The act of 1850, for shortening the language used in the acts of parliament, provides that in all acts words importing the masculine gender shall be deemed to include females, etc., unless the contrary is expressly provided. Now the new Reform Bill has not expressed the contrary, and therefore women are safe to vote if they like.

An annual report estimates the wheat crop in England and Scotland to be under average; barley, ten per cent. above average; oats, fifteen per cent. above average; beans, fully average, and peas much below average. The potato crop is producing an average yield, but the quality from an excessive moisture in the soil is rather inferior. In the western and southwestern counties of England the disease is singularly good; pastures very abundant, and a larger and better yield of hay has never been seen in England.

At the little walled town of Genzano, fifteen miles from Rome, they had lately an odd fight—no less than giving battle to the cholera with dreams. From fear of infection, the citizens had prohibited the entrance within the walls of all persons coming from other towns. A detachment of a hundred Papal soldiers arriving at that station, the gates were closed against them. The soldiers, determined to enter, commenced the attack. The citizens defended their walls bravely, but their numbers were killed, and a large number wounded. The account does not give the loss, if any, on the other side.

A cable dispatch from Florence, Italy, says General Garibaldi has issued a stirring address announcing that the time has now come for them to overthrow the tyranny of the Pope and restore Rome to Italy, and give the Eternal City its ancient supremacy as capital of the Italian States. A proclamation has been promulgated by King Victor Emmanuel, warning all Italians against taking part in, aiding or abetting the revolutionary movement against Rome, which is denounced as a crime against the laws of Italy. The proclamation concludes with a threat that the Government will not fail to visit with rigorous punishment all persons found engaged in illegal hostilities against the Papal authority.

Count Bismarck recently addressed a circular note to the diplomatic representatives of Prussia in regard to the intervention between Napoleon and Francis Joseph at Salzburg. The document has just been published, and is the principal subject of editorial discussion in English and continental newspapers. Bismarck says Prussia is willing to accept the representation made by France, at the Conference at Salzburg should be regarded as a pledge of peace. He also makes many allusions to the union of German States. The London journals comment with favor upon this note, regarding it as pacific and tranquilizing. The President, who has been disposed to find but little fault with what Bismarck says, denounces the circular because in all its references to German unity it completely ignores the treaty of Prague, and omits all allusion to the obligation under which Prussia rests to fulfill the stipulations of that solemn compact.

The Herald's City of Mexico despatch, September 7th, says the remains of Maximilian have arrived there from Queretaro. Notwithstanding the difficulties placed in Admiral Togo's way, there is every probability that the remains will be delivered to the envoy of the Austrian Imperial House. The Palace was to be illuminated on the 10th, and the day generally celebrated. All the convents are to be devoted to public use. The telegraph from Jalapa to the principal capitals will be opened in October. Three trains leave Vera Cruz daily for the interior. Juarez issued a decree committing 'confession by fines. General Diaz charges Mejia, present Minister of War, with selling several hundred cargoes of corn to the French during the war. Escalante's printing house has been confiscated. Three Imperial papers have been printed there. The Sacramento Herald registers as voters, and none other, the last anniversary proclamation, has gone to New Orleans. The Soldiers' Union, it is said, threatens to prosecute him for his alleged conspiracy to murder their friends by sending infected clothing to them during the war.

The steamer Russia arrived at New York on the evening of the 17th, with dates from Liverpool to the 7th, and Queenstown to the 8th. It brings some items of intelligence not received by the cable. The Atlantic Telegraph had made a dividend of four per cent on the eight per cent preference shares. Veroni Brothers, large cotton operators at Moscow, had failed for $250,000. The bullion in the Bank of England exceeded its note circulation, a fact without precedent within the last fifteen years. Advances from Frankfort state that wheat continues to be bought up at firm prices for France and Switzerland. A correspondent of the London Times notices a varicose symptom the fact that large arrivals of oats from the north of Europe were being transported from London to France. There is but little business doing throughout France, for confidence seems gone and credit dead; and the present feeling is one of apprehension. Moustier's circular to the French diplomatic agents relative to the meeting of the Emperor at Salzburg, says the journey was solely dictated by the idea of bearing affectionate testimony of sympathy to the imperial family of Austria, so cruelly affected by a late misfortune.

The East.

Snow has already fallen in the western part of Massachusetts.

Hon. Stoddard B. Colby, Register of the United States Treasury, died at Haverhill, N. H., on Saturday night, the 21st, where he was on a visit.

The consolidation of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and a score of adjoining boroughs into one corporation is again being agitated considerably, and the friends of the movement feel pretty confident of success, sooner or later. Allegheny City, however, appears to be dead-set against it, preferring to secede and form a new county, making the Allegheny the boundary line.

The West.

Large and important Methodist Conference gatherings are in progress in Iowa. The grand lodge of Good Templars for the State of Illinois convened at Decatur, on the 17th. It is their fourteenth annual session.

The billiard tournament for the benefit of the Soldiers' Widows and Orphans' Fund opened on the afternoon of the 23d, at Brunswick, Chicago.

The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce has appropriated $1,000 for the yellow fever sufferers in New Orleans, and appointed a committee to solicit individual subscriptions.

The distillery run by Funkhouser & Co. at Lafayette, Ind., was seized by a Government officer on the 10th, for defrauding the revenue. The amount involved is stated variously at from fifteen to fifty thousand dollars.

Advices from the West indicate that the Indians are again active on the lines of travel in the Plains and in Montana. The inhabitants of that territory are loudly demanding aid from the Government to stop the outrages, or for authority to do them selves.

George L. Van Solen, a night clerk at the Wheeler Hotel in Chicago, was arrested on Saturday, charged with the murder of Dr. Henry Harcourt, near St. Paul, Minnesota, two years ago. The details of the plot, show an audacious cold-blooded parallel to criminal actions.

A special despatch from St. Louis dated the 10th inst., says: Nearly one hundred deaths from cholera have occurred here during the past two weeks, arising, doubtless, from the indiscreet conduct of the Board of Health, in rescinding the order relating to the sale of vegetables, &c.

Mike McCoolle and Aaron Jones, who are stopping at the Southern Hotel in St. Louis, are having a high old time. They give a grand evening exhibition on Saturday evening, and after that begin their starting excursion among the roughs and plug uglies of the principal cities.

Hon. F. Redman, Secretary of State for Missouri, visited the office of the Westliche Post, on Thursday, the 19th, and used abusive language to one of the editors, who returned in a hostile personal fight. After punning each other for several minutes, the combatants were finally separated by Carl Schurz, the editor-in-chief of the Post.

A special from Omaha says the Indian Peace commission must be the result of the meeting at North Platte satisfactory beyond their anticipations. No Indian Chiefs left the Council disgraced, as reported, but all express friendliness, and voluntarily offered to go and advise the hostile Chiefs to meet the Commission at the meeting at North Platte, and to give up the knives, Camanches, Arapahoes, and other Southern tribes, express a desire for peace.

A special telegram from Port Huron, Mich., says that the tug W. K. Mink, while towing a great personal fight. After punning each other for several minutes, the combatants were finally separated by Carl Schurz, the editor-in-chief of the Post.

A prominent citizen of San Francisco has offered, upon certain conditions, to give $50,000 for the foundation of a "Labor Exchange"—an institution for the protection of labor, and the advancement of industry; a place where every one who seeks employment can find it without fee or reward; where the minutest information and statistics respecting every branch of industry shall be collected and imparted gratuitously, so that every one may learn without expense where his labor or services are needed.

The South.

The steamer Chilpa, on the 20th inst., exploded her boiler on the Savannah river, eighteen miles below Augusta, and all the crew on board, six in number, were killed. None of the passengers were injured.

The ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the soldiers' monument at Antioch took place on the 17th inst.—the anniversary of the battle. Gen. Grant did not accompany the President's party.

Crime.

The Savings Bank in Norway Village (N.Y.) was robbed on the night of the 21st, of $11,000 or $12,000 in money and collaterals. The robbers have not yet been taken.

Samuel Lauchner, proprietor of a hat and cap store, arrested on a charge of setting fire to his premises, shot himself through the heart in the station-house in New York.

H. H. Little, Superintendent of the Lowell (Ky.) City Jail, was struck upon the head with a pick held by Bremer, a street contractor, and lies in a critical condition.

A Wisconsin husband, after knocking his wife down and stamping upon her, picked her up tenderly and asked her forgiveness. We are pleased to learn that he then proceeded to hang himself.

Charles D. Harris, brother of Colonel L. D. Harris, of the Ohio Farmer, shot his only son, twenty-two years old, at Kent's Fortage County, on Friday night, Sept. 30th. The wound is pronounced fatal.

A man, who is entirely deaf, was shot by a party of ruffians, in the course of the difficulty Holmes Driscoll, was murdered by a party of ruffians. The safe belonging to the establishment, in the course of the difficulty Holmes Driscoll, was murdered by a party of ruffians.

A boy was in from the other side, who, about two months ago, was shot, and almost his whole scalp, a mere ring of hair having been left above the ears, and in front and at the neck. The horrible wound is now being treated by the authorities, and has been released on bail.

The Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer says: A boy was in from the other side, who, about two months ago, was shot, and almost his whole scalp, a mere ring of hair having been left above the ears, and in front and at the neck. The horrible wound is now being treated by the authorities, and has been released on bail.

A letter in the St. Paul Press, dated Redwood Falls, Redwood County, Minnesota, September 17, says that a grand jury has been organized in that county, and is now in session. The grand jury is composed of twelve men, and is now in session.

Local and Miscellaneous.

SATURDAY, October 5, 1867.

A DEPENDENT editor remarks that if the country grows much worse, he shall publish the notices of births under the head of disasters.

FURNITURE.—There are now five lines of freight boats on the Upper Mississippi, the Northwestern Line, the Northern Line, the Savanna Line, the Rail Line, and the People's Line.

PERMANENT.—Mr. I. S. Preston is having gratifying success with his class in penmanship at this place. The attendance is quite full, being about what the building will comfortably accommodate.

The Bridge on Bench St. is an eye-sore to everyone having an interest in the appearance of our streets. The apathy of the town council is surprising. Please expedite matters a little, "dada."

YOUNG ladies who are accustomed to read the newspapers are always observed to; possess winning ways, most amiable dispositions, invariably make good wives, and always select good husbands.

THURSDAY, October 17th, has been set apart by the R. W. G. Lodge of North America, as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer for the special blessing and guidance of Almighty God in the great work of temperance reform.

PERSONAL.—Henry McCort late clerk on the G. B. Knapp, has left that position and is now ruralizing about here, at home.

Fred. A. Dresser has returned to these parts after a long tarry away. He is making his headquarters at Osceola.

IN VANDERBILT AWARD.—Do our readers all understand that the genuine Chemical Saleratus, made by D. B. De Laod & Co., is never eaten. In the process of baking it all evaporates, leaving the bread light and pore. It has been imitated but the counterfeit is not easily disposed of. Use it instead of Soda. It weighs 16 ounces to the paper; others weigh 14 oz.

AURORA BOREALIS.—Glorious displays of this curious yet beautiful phenomenon are becoming frequently visible. Their strange and diverse appearances are not confined to the northern horizon, but stretch their lambent flames of flickering light to the zenith. The pure, rare atmosphere of Minnesota appears to be peculiarly favorable for these grand free exhibitions of celestial pyrotechnics.

VAN VOANES of the Stillwater Messenger celebrates the twelfth anniversary of his connection with his newspaper. The Messenger was established by him September, 1856, since which time an issue has not been omitted. He is the oldest editor but one in the State having a continuous connection with the same paper. Mr. Sinclair of the Winona Republican ranks him a few months in seniority.

The Saint Paul Press in advertising in its column of river news the arrivals and departures of the Steamer Cutter has always advertised it to and from Stillwater, whereas Taylor Falls is the terminus of the route. Such incorrect statements only serve to confuse and mislead travelers and do no good. Will the Press please correct?

CRANBERRIES.—Notwithstanding the prediction that the cranberry crop for this season would be a failure, the trade has opened out brisk. We are inclined to doubt that the yield this year will be as large as usual, yet the trade in this one of the staple products of the St. Croix valley is a very favorable showing up.

FIRE.—Sparks from the smoke-stack of the little steamer Champion, ignited a wood pile near the Chicago Mill, on Monday. By promptly shutting down the mill and putting the hands to work extinguishing the flames, a signal catastrophe was averted. Any delay must have cost the mill and surrounding buildings. The loss as it was, only figured up about an $100.

DISGRACEFUL.—A row of considerable proportions took place at the bagnio, kept at St. Croix Falls by a certain Madam Mindy, a half breed and a most desperate character. Axes, knives, &c., were used promiscuously, and John Lagoo, one of the combatants was quite seriously injured in the side and back by blows from an ax. It appears to us that this sort of thing ought to be about "played out." Our little neighbor is easily afflicted with divers and sundry nuisances, contrary to the good name and dignity of that commonwealth. Why the respectable citizens do not rid themselves of their motley collection of disreputable characters, is a mystery. It looks as though "one's afraid of other's do-as-they-will" even common legal proceedings. We hope soon to hear that the shameful stains are wiped out.

A FOOLISH FABRICATOR.—The last number of the St. Peter Advertiser gives a review of the Republican State Ticket just nominated, and such a review! Here is a specimen brief:

"Munch is a worthy Chief of a Good-Tempered Lodge up in Pine County, and holds the same relation to the Germans that Orangemen do to Irishmen."

Poor Mr. Munch—to be lied on in this kind of style must strike even him somewhat comically, albeit he is not a man much given to the funny mood, as a general proposition. But that he—the German of Germany—with the Teutonic brogue on his tongue as thick as the brew of a Napoleon gun—with larger beer and swifter knee his daily drink and meat—abhorring a Good Templar's Lodge as the devil does holy water—to be set down as a "worthy Chief" of a Lodge in Pine County, where evergreen trees would have to compose the membership, and mosquitoes do duty as camp sentinels, is a little too bad to borne in this year of the world's creation. The editor of the Advertiser should fabricate with a little more plausibility.—Rural Minnesotian.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN LINCOLN.—We are informed by Messrs. Watson and Crum, of Lincoln, that Mr. John Dorothy, a new settler, who had just got up his cabin on his homestead, and got moved in, accidentally shot himself, resulting in his death, on Sunday last, on the shore of Pike Lake. The particulars are as follows: He had been out fishing on the lake, and had his gun with him in the boat. On reaching the shore he caught hold of the barrel of the gun and drew it towards him, the hammer of the lock caught the side of the boat, causing it to discharge. A full charge of duck shot filled his left arm, face and neck. He managed to crawl to his cabin where he died in a few hours. He leaves a wife and several small children.—Pike Co. Press.

RE-NOMINATED.—Judge Barron has been re-nominated for the Wisconsin assembly from the District comprising the counties of Ashland, Bayfield, Burnett, Douglas, and Polk. The nomination was made by acclamation. The Judge has served several terms in the capacity of Assemblyman with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of his constituency. We congratulate our neighbors on their nomination for the Assembly. Let them make sure the election of this able, faithful and watchful exponent of their interests.

CAUSE.—The Rural Minnesotian publishes a letter from Washington county which says: "One half the grain in stock in this section to-day is completely ruined for milling purposes. The stacked grain has all to be taken down and dried to save anything."

A Radical! I like the word, Joe. There is something laudible and decided about it. It rings out like a challenge. It stirs the blood. It bodes disaster to bloodless and unrighteous law. It enters the sepulchre of Truth as the Angel entered the sepulchre of Christ—it rolls away the stone and lets the awakened and imprisoned thought go free. Radicalism is not a mad destroyer, but a wise builder. It keeps even step with the march of mind and the growth of Man. It weaves beauty into Use, and forms Justice into Law.

And in this conflict of opinion between a wise radicalism, and a blind adherence to an outgrown Past—between the New, radiant and strong, and the Old, darkened and dim with the mist of error—in this conflict it is no mean honor to bear a faithful part. The sword is not as strong as speech, and thought gains victories which force could never win.

In Homer's Epic, the great Achilles is stronger with his silver tongue than with his shining spear, and in the grand verse of Milton, Satan towers greater even in council than in war. We are but humble workers in the green field, but it is just matter for pride to be a Radical, and of pleasure to so write it day by day.—Lute A. Taylor.

Minnesota News.

On Sunday evening, Austin Proal, son of Charles Proal, Esq., lost his life by falling into a well.

The Pioneer says the boats are now taking down the river one thousand barrels of flour per day.

The Minneapolis Catechist says that the new lined oil mill in that city is well under way. Flax seed will then command a good price.

Benson Simpson, the eminent Methodist clergyman, lectured in St. Paul on Friday evening last, and at Minneapolis on Monday.

140 reapers, 75 threshers and over 100 wagons have been sold in Lake City since last June the books of our wheat dealers show that in the past four days $75,000 have been paid to the farmers for wheat. This is at the rate of $18.750 each day, and an increase of $8,750 per day over the six days reported last week, being at the rate of $112,000 a week.—Lake City Leader, Oct. 4.

Rev. Edward Dunbar, who officiated in Minneapolis for some time as a Baptist minister, and while there married Miss Eunice B. Lewis, a charming and accomplished young lady, has been arrested for bigamy, he having a wife and four children, who he had deserted, living at New Bedford, Mass.

A New Pioneer from Minnesota—J. V. Hook of this village, has growing in his garden the regular Pea Nut. By way of experiment he planted a handful of ones obtained at a grocery, early in the spring, and they have done well, being now filled with full grown pea nuts. It is planted in ridges about three feet apart, and the vine stands up about 10 inches perpendicular. When ripe, one bunch of vines will have from two to three quarts of peas. Forty bushels per acre is an average yield in the sandy lands of the South. If they will mature in this State, our rich lands will undoubtedly produce larger peas and more abundantly than the South.—Kaukon Republican.

The La Crosse Republican brags a little on the improvements making this year in La Crosse, included in which are a new Court House, several business blocks, churches, etc., amounting in all to $500,000, and adds that every building is occupied and new ones engaged even before they are ready for use.

SATURDAY, October 12, 1887.

ENTER ON A PAINTER.—Dead matter. Minnesota flouring mills are turning out 6,000 barrels a day.

The little Champion ran from Prescott to Hudson a few days since in one hour and ten minutes. Pretty good.

HARK FINEST painted S. Humphrey & Co.'s new store. It is one of the best advertisements in town and is very attractive.

R. R. Ties.—Parties are engaged in driving railroad ties down the river. The rear of the drive passed town yesterday.

CHERRYBERRIES continue to come in by the wagon-load. Purchasers are paying $2.75 per bushel for the best. S. Humphrey & Co. have thus far been the heaviest buyers.

Rev. T. M. Eddy, will be relieved from the editorial charge of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, by the General Conference of the Methodist Church, which meets in Chicago next month.

S. S. Hamilton keeps a choice variety of family groceries and has also on hand some of the finest brands of tobacco and cigars. Go ye lovers of the weed and try it.

A careless proof-reader got his paper to press with an article headed, "A Nasty Proclamation." The manuscript read "Amnesty Proclamation." The proof-reader's head was about level.

The District School in Dist. No. 2, taught by Miss Carrie Folsom, has closed for the present.

A select school has been opened in the same building.

NOT INVITED.—We notice in an exchange the reply of a farmer to a tradesman who asked, "Why don't you trade with me?" The answer was: "You don't advertise; I am not accustomed to go where I am not invited."

We are reminded by the decreasing length and coolness of the days of the near approach of winter, heralding the time when the article of fuel becomes one of the most important wants of domestic economy.

STATE FAIR POST.—We have received the daily Post, published during the continuance of the State Fair by Messrs. Leonard & Booth. It is a spicy five column sheet and we only regret that the continuance of a daily is not warranted.

DANCEING.—The first hop of the season came off at the Chicago House on Tuesday evening. This was followed by another one of larger proportions at the hotel at St. Croix Falls, on Thursday evening. About thirty-five couples were in attendance and all enjoyed the occasion to the utmost.

YOU man, never speak lightly or jestingly of the lady with whom you are intimate. The world looks upon you as her friend, as one who will defend her good name at all times, and never allow it to be spoken of disrespectfully; and if you connect her name with idle jests, it is the unkindest cut of all, and injures her more than the same remark could from another.

POSTAL CURRENCY.—It may be interesting to our readers who are bothered with mutilated postal currency to know that postmasters are obliged to receive all treasury notes for stamps or postage, if clearly genuine, no matter how worn or defaced they may be, provided that one twentieth part thereof be not missing—and fractional currency, if not one tenth part be missing. This is the law.

CORRESPONDENCE.—We have on hand a very interesting batch of items from Sunrise which we are obliged to omit, as we cannot depart from our established rule, never to publish contributed articles unless the name of the writer accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as an evidence of good faith. While we solicit contributions on current topics from all parts of the county, the name of the writer must be given.

RIVER NEWS.—The fall trade may now be considered fairly opened up. Goods of all kinds for home consumption load the boats on the up trip and on their return they take out flour, grain, cranberries and other products of this region.

The steamer Cutter has been somewhat delayed by heavy winds in the Lake, and has lost one trip during the week. Good freight both ways.

The Champion makes regular trips between this place and Prescott. It is a fine public labor.

The Pioneer has put in an appearance but once during the week.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Mr. A. W. Thaxter has about completed a new dwelling house on the opposite side of the river from the one he at present occupies. It is finely situated and has a good view of the river and lower town. He proposes to have it ready to occupy in a couple of weeks.

POLK CO. has put in nomination the following County ticket:—For County Treasurer, A. A. Heald, of Lincoln; For Sheriff, Charles C. Fisk, of St. Croix Falls; For Clerk of Circuit Court and Register of Deeds, Ashael Kimball, of Osceola; For District Attorney, Henry D. Barron, of St. Croix Falls; For County Surveyor, Albert Essen, of Farmington; For Coroner, Willis Scott, of Alden.

DAMAGED BY FLAME.—It is estimated that the damage to window glass alone, sustained by Taylors Falls during the recent terrible hailstorm, will figure up about five hundred dollars. This is much more than was at first supposed, but the breakage will not fall much short of that amount. No correct idea can be formed of the injury to the ripening crops, more particularly the products of the kitchen gardens, the majority of which were almost totally destroyed.

DISTRICT COURT.—The October session of the District Court for this Judicial District, commences its session at Chicago City, on Tuesday next, the 15th inst. Owing to some existing illegality there will be no regular Jury summoned. Should any Jury cases arise, a special venire will be issued. This matter of summoning Juries should be remedied as soon as possible, so that a legal Jury shall be in attendance at Court sessions. This error cost the county a "right smart" bill at the spring term.

MINISTERIAL.—The Rev. B. A. Kemp late in charge of the M. E. Church at this place paid us a flying visit the first of the week, before departing for Rushford, his new station. We suspect there are two hearts in this case that wish to beat as one.

The Rev. W. D. Bennett the new appointee at this place, preached last Sunday with great acceptance. Regular services will be held at the Church hereafter.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW M. E. CHURCH AT OSCEOLA.—The new Methodist Episcopal Church in Osceola will be dedicated on Sunday, October 27th 1887. Rev. J. P. Chaffee, of Minneapolis, will officiate, and preach the Dedication Sermon. Rev. P. M. Fullerton, P. E., will also be present, and hold Quarterly Meeting services, and other clergymen will also participate on the occasion.

EVERY SATURDAY.—This popular Weekly presents its readers just those portions of European current literature which every intelligent American wishes and needs to see. Omitting the heavier papers, discussions of topics of local interest, it gathers from all sources the readable and instructive articles which express the best current thought of England and the Continent, and with the utmost promptness places them before American readers. Any good story, any popular sketch, essay, and interesting semi-scientific paper, and striking poem, or literary intelligence appearing in a European periodical, is sure to reappear speedily in the pages of Every Saturday. It is published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

PROSPECTING.—Mr. D. A. Canaday is constantly engaged in sinking the shaft at the mouth of Spring Creek. A depth of nearly thirty feet has been attained. Specimens sent to St. Paul and examined by practical geologists, are pronounced silver-bearing rock. Mr. Geo. Stuntz visited the shaft this week and gives as his opinion that no better showing up could be found in the best of the Lake Superior mines at this depth. The opinion of Mr. Stuntz is entitled to great weight as he has had many years experience in the various mining operations of the Lake. A great many miners of more or less experience have examined the works and all concur in the same opinion. Mr. Canaday has about completed arrangements to sink the shaft to the depth of an hundred feet. He is very sanguine of success in this enterprise and judging from the encouraging reports and opinions from all sources we can see no good reason why it should be otherwise.

The County Seat Question.

This regular biennial question has turned up again this fall, like a poor penny. This time the proposition is to remove the seat of county government from Chicago City to the SW. 1/4, Sec. 26, T. 34, R. 20. Centre City claims the seat to "better the jurisdiction" etc. On what further grounds this claim is based we are not aware. Many serious doubts arise as to the policy of this project. The bill for removal appears as a particular piece of legislation, and is offered as a bonus—a 5 acre gift, and is worth, say $30. Now we advise that this is a suitable spot, that it cannot compare in beauty of location and natural attractions with many other places even in this vicinity; that it would be folly to expend thousands of dollars in erecting county buildings on this 5-acre lot, when a more nominal sum will purchase a location worth infinitely more for such a purpose. This specification must of itself prove fatal to the scheme. Should this design for the removal succeed, then higher taxes will be the result, for appropriations must be made to build permanent (?) buildings for the seat. Buildings that will be a credit to the county, beautiful in architectural design, attractive, useful and ornamental, must be erected. The County Seat is very comfortably located now, where a large majority vote placed it two years ago. Then why disturb it at present? Simply because the friends of the removal scheme realize that Centre City must get it now or never. Perhaps our present taxation is not sufficient, but many will persist in thinking as Mercutio said of his wound:

Thou' not as wide as a door,
Or as deep as a well,
'Tis enough—'T will do.

Furthermore this magnificent bonus is neither the geographical or business centre of the county. In another year the whole aspect of affairs in the county may be changed. A portion of the vast tide of western emigration will doubtless follow in the wake of the iron horse, and open up a thriving town at the geographical centre, while the business centre may increase in population until it of itself shall hold the balance of power. If the "commonwealth is sick of its own choice," let it not be too hasty in its conclusion. Stop and consider the future welfare as well as the present prejudices. The time for a final and permanent settlement of this vexed question, has not arrived, and this we think will be the voice of the majority after mature deliberation on the merits of the question.

It has been decided to hold the Republican National Convention in Chicago.

Democratic County Ticket.—A Big Thing.

We stated last week that there was no Democratic county ticket in Chicago. There is, and we beg pardon for the statement. We have just discovered our mistake. A ticket has been nominated, a platform adopted and we advertise the concern, free gratis. Here are the proceedings from the Pioneer.

St. Paul, Sept. 21, 1867.

At a conservative Democratic county convention, held at Sunrise City on the 21st day of September, 1867, the following nominations for county officers were made by the several representatives of different parts of Chicago county, Minnesota:

For Commissioner, 3d District.—John D. Wilcox, of Sunrise City; For Auditor.—Dr. J. A. Comfort, of Wyoming; For Treasurer.—Robert Nozka, of Rush Creek; For County Attorney.—H. N. Setzer, of Taylor's Falls; For County Surveyor.—H. H. Newberry, of Taylor's Falls; For Register of Deeds.—William Melowin, of Sunrise City; For Judge of Probate.—For Sheriff.—Geo. V. B. Williams, of Sunrise City; For Coroner.—B. F. Wilkes, of Sunrise City.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we will heartily support the Democratic State nominations, believing that the great Democratic principles of the nation are more consistent to administer the powers of our Government than any other party.

Resolved, That we consider a white man, without regard to his nationality, far superior to the black man.

Resolved, That the Congressional system of logic reconstruction is inconsistent with our interests, and dangerous to our nationality.

WM. McDONNIN, Secretary.

Truly refreshing! We are not aware of the number of cliques in the handful of Democrats in Chicago county.

But they are some several, and every clique that don't go for and with each other one, is considered as possessing no more principle and patriotism than a Cincinnati street. They stigmatize one another as traitors, turn-coats and shirks and bore more holes in each other's public and even private reputation, than a speckled woodpecker in an apple tree.

Well knowing that the political contest skillful maneuvering is everything, the "Colonel of the 26th" with a few Union Democrats, in the endeavor to give a show of fight on the County Commission from Dist. No. 3, held solemn convocations, concocted and put up a ticket for the sufferings, sufferings and sacrifices of the great, free and independent "Milkmaid" from the breeze of popular favor the success of the ticket is immorally certain. It can't help going in by an immense minority.

As for the dignified resolutions, well, they read so much like P. V. Naby's productions in his "No Diapneumoni" that we almost suspect the convention of plagiarism.

When the bowels of the earth rumble like an empty stomach, and the thunder precedes the lightning,—when boys exhibit antipathy to water,—when boys don't run after the girls and girls won't have 'em, and when Chicago county butter is made from the milk of the cow and, then and not till then shall we expect to see a Democratic Ticket elected in this county.

The Elections.

On our second page we give an interesting correspondence on "The Crisis." Since this was penned the elections have taken place in Ohio and Pennsylvania, the two principal strongholds of political power.

In Pennsylvania the Republicans carry the Legislature, the Senate, 20 to 13, the House by 56 to 44, but probably lost their candidate for Supreme Judge by one to two thousand.

In Ohio the Republicans elect their Governor by about 2,000 majority, and lost the Legislature, the Senate by one and the House by three majority.

In Iowa the Republicans elect their Governor by about 30,000, and carry four fifths of both houses of the Legislature.

What action Andy J. will take remains to be seen.

The State Fair.

From what we can learn, we infer that the state fair was somewhat of a failure, so far as the exhibits were concerned, particularly in cattle and products of horses and farming implements. The most of the exhibitors were from Rochester and Olmsted County, and the northern portion of the state was very poorly represented.

Was full of life and cheer,

Found it a place of rest and ease.

And the only light is the moon
That shines on the water.

ONLY A FRIEND.

Do you intend to marry that man,
Helen? asked the young man.
The lady to whom this question was addressed had just returned from the front door, to which she had gone to save a guest, and she seemed slightly startled perhaps, but her answer was to the point. "No, Aunt; I have no idea that I shall ever be the wife of John Burdell."

"But I think the young man loves you,"
continued the older lady.
There was no answer at least with words.
Helen Allen stood by the table twirling a pair of scissors; her aunt looked up
from her sewing to see the girl's face,
and read an answer there—not an entirely pleased or triumphant one; there was a little uneasiness mixed with it.

"You think just as I do, Helen," said
her aunt.
"Well, aunt, I will not deny it," she replied, retreating her aunt's gaze with a little smile, which was on the whole, a kind and steady one.

"And I believe that this young man expects—at the least, hopes—you will be his wife," said the older lady.
"No, aunt, he does not—at least, it is not my fault if he does, for I have told him plainly that, though I value him very highly as a friend, I have no intention of being married to him."

"But you still encourage his advances?"
said her aunt.
"No, aunt, he only visits me as a friend,
knowing perfectly my feeling towards him."

Mrs. Stanley laid down her sewing, and surveyed her niece with an intense, half-mournful expression.
Helen, do you tell me that you are fully convinced that Mr. Burdell cherishes you—no flattery—that you will ever be his wife?"

The seissors flashed rapidly around the dainty fingers.
"Yes, aunt—at least, as yet, I have told him frankly, and it is his fault not mine, if he does not understand that I reject his suit."

The older lady shook her head.
"And I say, dear Helen, that, as a friend, you ought not to refuse to receive his visits; at least, not to accept his attentions."

Helen Allen started, and her fair face flushed a little.
"What not when we perfectly understand each other?"

"If I comprehend your reply, Mr. Burdell has proposed to me, and I have refused him."
Helen, avoiding a direct reply to her niece.
"Yes," she replied.

"And you have refused him?" observed
her aunt.
"Yes," was the reply.

"You think him, however, an estimable young man—one whom it would be well to know in any case?" said Mrs. Stanley.

"Most certainly I do, aunt. John Burdell is a good, a noble fellow; honorable and generous-hearted; intelligent and agreeable; too as you have said, I do not love him; he does not realize my ideal of the man I could marry; but I esteem him
very much."

"Well, then, Helen, I have only to repeat my remark—I have no right to interfere with your choice, and it is doing him a wrong."

"I don't see how, aunt," observed
Helen.
"Because it is only keeping alive in his heart a hope which can never be realized,"
said her aunt.

"You know, I know, everybody who has had the slightest acquaintance
with you, and saw you together for half an hour, would perceive that this young man was amazed of you, and it is wrong to increase his amazement by your own
stimulation of affection which, by your own showing, you cannot reciprocate. It is only a waste of time, like your own chains
which may cost him, you know not how
much of suffering and agony to break."

"Dear me, aunt," said the girl, with a
shrug of her pretty sloping shoulders,
"you fairly make me shudder. What shall I do?"

"Break off this acquaintance at once,"
replied Mrs. Stanley. "For, despite it, my
dear child, to yourself, what petty sophistries you may, love of admiration is at the bottom of all this. You smile upon
this young man, you receive his attentions, you talk and jest with him; he looks
in your face, and feels anew the love with which he regards you. It is not enough
to say that he understands your true sentiments; while you treat him as you did this morning, the man will have hope, and the
truer and nobler he is, the harder at last
will it be to surrender you."

"I never looked at it in this light before," said Helen.
She spoke half to herself, this time,
slowly revolving the reasons around her
fingers.

charm and every grace is only a snare to him; and remember that when a woman satisfies herself she cannot accept a man then the separation between herself and him ought to be entire. It cannot safely be otherwise, and for myself I would sooner part with my right hand than feel that, because of any vanity, or any thoughtlessness, I had broken a man's heart, or blighted his happiness for life."

"But, aunt, your ideal of a man is so high, just after your own pattern. Their hearts are not so easily broken or their lives blighted as you imagine."
"But they are sometimes," said Mrs.
Stanley. "And it is very shallow logic to excuse one's own faults because of other people's."

"I know it, aunt, and I am sorry that I accepted Mr. Burdell's invitation to ride out with him this afternoon."
"Let it be the last time, Helen. You owe it to yourself and to him to make this separation entire."

"But I should not like to lose John as a friend, aunt," said Helen. "I like his society, and his cheerful disposition."
"I am sorry," said Mrs. Stanley, "but I should not be a very desirable aunt were I to encourage you to do wrong because it was pleasant."

It was a smile, sweet and glowing in its tenderness, which she turned to the face of Helen Allen. She was very young, and full of life and vigor, and her small white arms about the lady's neck, exclaiming, "Well, aunt, your niece would be a very unworthy one, if with such a cousin, she did not do what was right, and she will!"

At that moment Dr. Allen, Helen's father, came in, and he and his wife and daughter that the roses for which Helen was watching for several days had just arrived from the last night's ride.
The ladies hurried out to see the blossoms,
and the subject of their last half-hour's conversation was dismissed.

Helen Allen was an intelligent and unusually interesting girl, in her twenty-fourth year. She had not positive beauty, but her face, her eyes, her smile, which were far more attractive. Her face was bright, sweet, open, and her conversation powers, her natural sprightliness and adaptation made her a singular favorite with gentlemen.

There was no answer at least with words.
Helen Allen stood by the table twirling a
pair of scissors; her aunt looked up
from her sewing to see the girl's face,
and read an answer there—not an entirely

body who has had the slightest acquaintance
with you, and saw you together for half an hour, would perceive that this young man was amazed of you, and it is wrong to increase his amazement by your own
stimulation of affection which, by your own showing, you cannot reciprocate. It is only a waste of time, like your own chains
which may cost him, you know not how
much of suffering and agony to break."

"Dear me, aunt," said the girl, with a
shrug of her pretty sloping shoulders,
"you fairly make me shudder. What shall
I do?"

"Break off this acquaintance at once,"
replied Mrs. Stanley. "For, despite it, my
dear child, to yourself, what petty
sophistries you may, love of admiration is
at the bottom of all this. You smile upon
this young man, you receive his atten-
tions, you talk and jest with him; he looks
in your face, and feels anew the love with
which he regards you. It is not enough
to say that he understands your true sentiments; while you treat him as you did this
morning, the man will have hope, and the
truer and nobler he is, the harder at last
will it be to surrender you."

"I never looked at it in this light before," said Helen.
She spoke half to herself, this time,
slowly revolving the reasons around her
fingers.

"Why, Isabel," exclaimed Helen, lifting
her head from her hand.
"Are you not glad to see me, Helen?"
she asked.

"Very," was the cordial response.
"I met Mr. Burdell this morning when I was out on a shopping tour," said the girl, brightly, throwing herself into chair, and flinging herself with a sandal-wood fan, "and I was so glad to see you, that I could not resist the opportunity to make all the inquiries about you that I could."

"The young man looked well and pale,
as though he had gone through some adversity, but he was very cheerful, and he said, with his old manner, 'I have come to take you to a picnic, arranged by my sister, and this time I can have no excuse.'
Helen."

"You must, Mr. Burdell, for I am expecting company."
Helen said this very reluctantly; but there was no help for it; and Mr. Burdell went, and he should be with her before two o'clock.

"Helen, you are expecting Mr. Pauling afternoon?"
"I think he may be here," said Helen.
"Are you going to marry that man?"
"I don't know," said Helen, "but I think I should like to see him."

Local and Miscellaneous.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1867.

John O'Hara and family returned from Davenport last Thursday.

The Hastings Gazette is prospering. We are glad to see that it is enlarged to an eight column page.

On our inside today, will be found the history of the Mrs. Lincoln affair and much interesting news and miscellany.

Dance.—About twenty-five couples congregated at one of the dancing halls in this place, last Thursday night. A general good time was the result.

Thanks.—We are prepared to print Election Tickets—any number wanted—at low figures. Candidates for office will please give us a call.

Bar Goods.—Many of our merchants, S. Humphrey & Co., W. H. C. Folsom, and those at St. Croix, have just opened good stocks of Dry Goods.

Wool Rolls.—Mr. Erasmus found of the Taylor Falls Carding Mill, will keep wool rolls for sale, as will be seen by a notice elsewhere.

Barber Trimmer.—W. H. C. Folsom had men and teams at work, last week, delivering square timber at his saw mill, to be used in repairing it next winter.

Marriage.—Last Friday Mr. Henry Fall of this place, and Miss Maggie Manning of Michigan, were united in the holy bonds, &c. We wish both parties joy.

Wool Rolls.—CONSTANTLY ON HAND and For Sale at the TAYLORS FALLS CARDING MILL, in REARD.

Taylor's Falls, Minn., Oct. 11, 1867.

Pratt's Writing School closed on Wednesday evening and "His Pennmanship" as Geo. Miles calls him, took his departure for elsewhere. Winona, is supposed to be his next objective point.

More Photographs.—C. H. Zimmerman, from Whitney's Gallery, St. Paul, spent several days in this vicinity last week, photographing our scenery. His efforts were confined mostly to the Falls.

A Young Lady being requested by an old bachelor to take a seat upon his knee, in a crowded street, under the following reply: "No, thank you, I'm afraid such an old seat would break down with me."

The Falls, County Press, says the Upper St. Croix valley is a capital place to engage in the manufacture of glass, for which there is an inexhaustible supply of excellent sand. Several boat-loads have been taken down the river at a profit.

Chanson.—The St. Paul Pioneer says that the gentlemen who composed the late firm of Bohrer, Morrison & Reeves have bought out Messrs. A. H. Wither & Co., and will immediately enter upon a large commission business. The firm name will be Morrison, Bohrer & Reeves.

Soon-Chow.—This efficacious preservative against scurvy is being manufactured by our portly friend Knowles in quantities to suit purchasers at his establishment opposite the Chicago House. William just about monopolizes the cabbage trade.

County Work.—The regular October session of the District Court convened at the County Seat on Tuesday of this week. There being no Court Calendar however, an adjournment came off almost immediately. This Court business is becoming a good deal of a farce and a somewhat expensive one for the County.

The river keeps up to a navigable stage and no more. The boats experience some difficulty from sand bars. On account of a slight discharge of the "hog chains," the Cutter was compelled to lay up at Osceola Mill for repairs and lost one trip thereby. She will probably be in to-day.

The Pioneer and Champion come regularly.

Thanks.—We are under obligations to John Dobney for one of his fine large boxes of honey, many of which would weigh a cwt. Sweet! sweet as proffered kisses, tho' stolen ones are sweeter. The carnal showers, the melting fall of vernal, the syrup of love, the nectar of adversity, can't compare. This honey was fairly on a par with the many sweet sights, sounds and sensations of life.

For the Woods.—The regular annual pilgrimage of our lumbermen has fairly commenced. From now until winter "shuts the scene," wagons loaded with all the requisites and appliances for the winter's campaign in the pines and drawn by any number of cattle or horses may be seen almost daily, venturing their way through town.

SALE OF SCHOOL LANDS.—Those of our readers interested will do well to remember the sale of school lands to come off on the 23d inst. Doubts are entertained as to the legality of the sale owing to some discrepancy in the posted notices. The survey also infringes on certain lands owned by Mr. Patrick Fox, J. L. Taylor, and W. H. C. Folsom. Mr. Fox, we are informed, proposes to contest the question. Altogether the matter is rather mixed.

S. WINTERGARDEN and Charles E. Leonard are the Democratic candidates for members of the House of Representatives from the second District, composed of the counties of Washington, Chicago, Pine and Kanabec.

Local Notices. Go to the Bryant & Stratton Commercial College St. Paul, and obtain a sound practical education. See advertisement in another column.

Buy your Furniture at Osceola Mills, Polk Co., Wis., the cheapest and best establishment in the St. Croix Valley.—Either at Wholesale or Retail. All work warranted and satisfaction guaranteed. Planing, Matching, Sorel Sawing and Job Turning done to order. All orders should be addressed, J. A. Whitney, Osceola Mills, Polk Co., Wis.

The Snow Flake.—The Poets and writers of romance often refer to the snow flake as an emblem of purity. When we see the snow falling gently to the ground, we think of D. B. De Land & Co.'s, Best Chemical-Solerales, which we think is quite as pure and produces beautiful results. It is full weight and now therefore gets more value for the same money.

Minnesota News.

The Wabasha Herald says that the longest raft that ever went down the Mississippi left that place under command of Harvey Smith. It contained three acres.

Mr. McElrath, State Auditor, has sold 1,320 acres of school land at Winona, and the Republican says, received as cash purchase money, $6,640.

A sale of school lands in Wabasha county on the 21 inst. amounted to $1300. The sale of school lands in Goodhue county amounted to upwards of $10,000.

A call has been issued by the pastors of many of the Christian churches in Minnesota for a State Christian Convention, to be held in Paribault on the 22d, 23d and 24th of October.

The State University opened on Monday with a good list of scholars.

The St. Paul Daily Press says: The Minnesota River Improvement under the supervision of General G. K. Warren, is satisfactorily progressing.

We notice the death at New Orleans, of John N. Chase, of yellow fever. Mr. C. was a member of the first State Legislature, and went with the Old First Regiment.

We learn that the attempt to raise the Burlington has proved a failure. The machinery, cabin, upper portions of that splendid steamer will be taken off, and nothing will be left of her but the hull.

St. Paul. A correspondent of the Boston Traveler, writing from St. Paul, Minn., gives the following curious facts in regard to the early history of that city: "St. Paul was called Nimijaska, or white Rock, by the Dakotas, on account of the bold white sandstone overhanging the river, making in those days a permanent landmark. Father Gaultier, a Catholic missionary, built a log chapel, blessed the new 'basilica,' and dedicated it to St. Paul which thus came to be the name of the city. Previous to that time the name of the place was called 'Fig's Eye.' But the real Romulus who founded the city, was one Pierre Parrant, a Canadian voyageur from St. Louis, in the employ of the American Fur Company, an ill-favored, one-eyed fellow, gross and ignorant. He determined to locate where he could get whiskey to the Indians unhindered. The spot was just outside the Fort Snelling Reserve. Here near the Fountain Cure, he made a claim and built a shanty, and thus was St. Paul founded. He sold his claim afterwards for $10—it could not now be bought for half a million. Parrant's only inheritance gained him the name of Old Fig's Eye, and so the incipient city took that name."
